Day 1: Tuesday, May 22
Arrive to Manchester where we will meet and take you to the great Viking city of York. Once checked in, there will be some free time for lunch before a short walking tour which will conclude at the Minister. Your hotel will be your base for the next four nights with dinner provided that night.

Day 2: Wednesday, May 23
Today's excursion will focus largely on the Royal Wedding scenes in Westminster Abbey which were filmed in Beverley Minster, a Gothic masterpiece in the lovely little market town of Beverley. During this afternoon, you will discover Carlton Towers, the 17th century private home of Lord and Lady Gerald Fitzalan Howard, which doubled as Windsor Castle. English Afternoon Tea will be served as part of this visit before returning to York.

Day 3: Thursday, May 24
Castle Howard tops the bill today with the first of your On Location visits. Immortalized for its leading role in the filming of Brideshead Revisited, today's 'Gaslight and Riots' tour recalls the 1850 visit of Queen Victoria and Prince Albert to the home of Royal confidant George Howard and takes in all the rooms used in filming of the TV series. With time to see the stunning garden and have lunch here independently, you will also visit Newby Hall which was used as the setting for Brooks, a Gentleman's Club in Mayfair. The gardens here are gorgeous as you might expect from a former winner of the coveted Historic Houses Association/Christies Garden of the Year award, an accolade also achieved by Castle Howard. Tea and cookies will also be served before leaving Newby Hall. Back in York we will have free time until we gather for a pub dinner.

Day 4: Friday, May 25
Much of today will be filled with a visit to the treasure-filled Harewood House, another of the top locations used in the filming of ITV's Victoria. Set in a Capability Brown inspired landscape, it's the home of the Earl of Harewood, cousin of Her Majesty The Queen and where the film crew used much of the State Floor, Below Stairs and the Estate for
Day 5: Saturday, May 26
Leave York at 9am for the drive to Lincoln Cathedral, one of the most beautiful Gothic cathedrals in Europe, perched high on a hill overlooking the Lincolnshire plains. The town of Lincoln is fascinating, and there will be free time to browse through the charming streets of the Bailgate area, and for one of the many nearby cafes or pubs (perhaps the Victoria Pub?). Continue southward to London, your base for the next three nights.

Day 6: Sunday, May 27
As part of a short panoramic tour of London, today’s highlights will include visits to Kensington Palace, Queen Victoria's childhood home where you will also see the new exhibition on “Diana - Her Fashion Story.” It is also the home of The Duke and Duchess of Cambridge, Prince George and Princess Charlotte. Continue to the Victoria and Albert Museum, one of the great public buildings opened during Victoria’s reign, housing one of the finest collections of Applied Art in the world. A special, docent-led tour will highlight some of the amazing Fashion and Textiles exhibits.

Day 7: Monday, May 28
Drive out to Windsor Castle this morning, residence of Her Majesty The Queen, which serves as both home and office. You will enjoy a stroll through the opulent State Rooms and magnificent St. George’s Chapel. Return to your hotel for an afternoon at leisure for last-minute shopping, sightseeing or packing your suitcase.

Tuesday, May 29
Transfer to London Heathrow for your flight home.
